Under The Atlantic: Annual Canada Day Celebration

July 1 11 am – 2 pm Aspotogan Heritage Trust Building

This year Hilton the shark is going to venture all the way to the AHT building to enjoy some popcorn and cotton candy with us! But not until we find where he snuk off to this time. Bring your family and come enjoy a scavenger hunt to find out where our friend Hilton the shark is hiding out. Along the way you will encounter a free bbq, snacks, games, a bouncy castle, and a 9 hole mini golf course! You do not want to miss this event.

Waterfront Fun

July 21 11 am Hubbards Cove Waterfront Park
The annual World Tuna Flat Races are being postponed for 2018. Three of the tuna flat boats are in such disrepair that they are not safe enough to float for this year. Funding has not been secured to replace the boats in time for the 2018 races scheduled for July 21st. There is a plan in place to build new boats over the winter and the World Tuna Flat Races will resume in 2019. The HCWA is planning for an alternative event to be held on Saturday, July 28th. We invite the public to come to the waterfront for an outdoor BBQ, live music, and boats will be provided by the members to take people out for a short sail, or “putt putt”, or row around the cove. The single tuna flat which is seaworthy will be available for people to try their hand at rowing one of these unique vessels. In fact, all of the fun activities that normally happen at the waterfront on World Tuna Flat Race day will be provided, except the race itself.
